M.I.S. MAN DISPELS RUMORS

On furlough from Camp Savage's Military Intelligence School were Sergeant Ralph Kimoto, Pvt. Shizuo Kunihiro and Pvt. Tadashi Hamane.

Pvt. Kunihiro dispelled rumors current at Butte that Pvt. Bud Mukaye, who volunteered to enroll in the Army M.I.S. had died while being sent overseas. Said Kunihiro, "when I left Savage, Bud was just getting ready for a good time in town." He continued, "Back East, conditions are perfect for Nohonjin. You forget that

'Yes'-POSTON 97 PERCENT

Ninety-seven per cent of the registrants in Poston Relocation Center have indicated loyalty to the United States in the military questionnaire, it was disclosed by Captain Norman Thompson, Tuesday night before a collective groups of Canal and Butte councilmen and block managers.

Results from Manzanar are "very good," though figures were not released, stated R. B. Cozzon, WRA field chief at the same meeting.

Special Sales At Canteens

Special clearance sales at the Gila stores are now in progress, and residents are urged to do their shopping today.

As particular items are being sold approximately at cost prices, early purchases are encouraged; also to avoid "possibility of rationing," announced Gilbert Kuramitsu, general manager.

A memo of special interests include: ladies' slips, dresses, mens' hats, sweat shirts, shirts, and underwears.

Property Transfer Assistance

In accordance with the obligation of the Authority to aid evacuees in the conservation of their assets the new WRA Administrative Instruction No. 78 from Washington States that the Transportation Section of the Evacuee Property Office in San Francisco will provide assistance in connection with the transportation and storage of personal property, revealed Mich Yamamoto, evacuee property supervisor.

In general, this assistance will include (A) the establishment and operation of warehouses, at convenient points, for free storage of evacuee property; (B) the furnish-

WRA Ousts 28 Residents

As a part of the WRA policy for the weeding out of disloyal elements in the center, twenty-eight alleged Axis sympathizers were rounded up and removed from the project Tuesday and Wednesday, Director Leroy Bennett announced.

Thirteen Japan-educated American citizens were included in the group. They were transferred to the War Relocation segregation camp at Moab, Utah, a former CCC camp.

Fifteen others, all aliens, were taken into custody by the Federal Investigation agents and U.S. Marshal's deputies for transfer to the Lordsburg, New Mexico camp to await hearing before an alien interment board at El Paso, Texas. If found guilty of "being dangerous," the aliens will be interned for the duration in the New Mexico camp.
